

Registration 8:30 to 9am

Seminar 2018

Saturday 4th August

Program

Time	Speaker	Program
9.00-9.10	Letetia Ware President of the AGIA	Welcome & AGIA 2017/18 highlights
9.10-10.10	Peter MacLeod Director Minor Use, Registration Management & Evaluation APVMA	Use of registered chemicals in food production
10.10-10.30	Kevin Grivell	Practical use of a registered product and state regulations
10.30-10.45	David Jones Mirboo Farm	Gippsland Regional Initiatives
10.45-11.00		Morning Tea
11.00 -12.00	Associate Professor John Thomas Principle Research Scientist Centre for Horticultural Sciences	Distribution and Epidemiology of Virus Infecting Garlic in Australia
12.00- 12.30	Brad Mills HIA Industry Relations Manager	Export Program, Horticulture Code of Practice and update on HIA activities
12.30-1.15		Lunch
1.15-2.30	Peter Hastie Business Development Manager Australian Certified Organic	Organic market trends and certification
2.30-3.00	David Moon	Moonrocks, broad acre garlic growing
3.00-3.15		Afternoon Tea
3.00 – 4.00		TBC, Soil CRC
4.00 onwards		Interactive Grower Session, hosted by a panel and audience participation looking at garlic production, questions, issues and direction
7.00pm onwards		Dinner

Sunday 5th August

9.00 - 9.15	Letetia Ware President of the AGIA	Current strategic planning and AGIA directions
9.15 -10.15	Penny Woodward and Trevor Gray	Identifying garlic cultivars and groups AGIA Seminar Survey Forms
10.15-10.45		Morning Tea
10.45- 12.00	Stephen Harper Principle Research Scientist Gatton Research Centre	Importing and developing new garlic cultivars
12.00-12.30	Bronwyn Richards	Developing a garlic co-operative
12:30	Letetia Ware President of the AGIA	Closing comments
12.30 – 1.00		Lunch
1:00 onwards		AGIA AGM